Together, we are building Goodwill.

Goodwill makes it easy for individuals, businesses, and communities to come together to support people with disabilities, economic disadvantages, and other barriers to employment.

Since 1950, Goodwill has been supporting the power of independence through job training and support services. We are a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit organization, and one of 156 regional Goodwill organizations throughout the U.S. and Canada devoted to giving people the opportunities to succeed.

Last year, Goodwill helped 895 Connecticut residents find work.

We're doing good. You can help.

General Requirements for all positions: All employees are required to receive the COVID-19 vaccine or be tested for COVID-19 on a weekly basis. Excellent time management and organizational skills, verbal and written communication skills, and interpersonal skills.

Satisfactory driving record, current drivers' license, and daily access to a reliable, registered, and insured vehicle for frequent in-state driving required for all positions.

Please review each individual position for a comprehensive list of Essential Job Functions, Expectations and Qualifications.
